

GALICIAN FILM NIGHT Bs.As. by Alberte Pagan

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 11, 7 PM

Columbia University

Schermerhorn, Room 614

No RSVP Required - Subtitles in English

Bs.As.

Galicia/Argentina | 2006, 80 min.

"Bs.As." is an experimental documentary film that reframes the history of immigration from Galicia (Spain) to Buenos Aires (Argentina). A Galician man's curiosity about his long-lost relatives who immigrated to Buenos Aires takes him on a surreal journey across times and space. Through travel, photographs, letters, and phone calls he explores the unpredictable ways in which immigration creates both bonds and distance between people and places. "Bs.As." received various awards including the Premio Foco Galicia (Tui, 2007).

Alberte Pagan

O Carballino | (1965 -)

Alberte Pagan is a Galician writer and film director. His films include "Como foi o conto" (2004), "Os waslala" (2005), "Bs.As." (2006), "Po de estrelas" (2007), "A solucom e o socialismo" (2008) and "Tanyaradzwa" (2009). He is the author of books and articles such as "Introducion aos clasicos do cinema experimental", "Residuos experimentales en Arrebatado", and an essay on U.S. underground cinema.

Galician Film Nights

NYC | Third Annual Event

Galician Film Nights is an annual event dedicated to screening independent films from or about Galicia, Spain in New York City. Galician films offer unique perspectives on the plurality of Spanish cinema and culture. Previous events were held at Xunta Tapas Bar (East Village) and the Center for Galician Studies (CUNY Graduate Center). More at: "Galician Film Nights NYC" on facebook.com

Curated by Maria Teresa Gabo

Directions: Take the 1 train to 116th Columbia University, Morningside Campus (http://www.columbia.edu/about_columbia/maps/schermerhorn.html)